MURDERERS LIVING HIGH.

M. Eyraud and His Accomplice's Life in Prison.

THE FORMER WRITING MEMOIRS.

He Has Indicated a Rough Sketch of Himself, Gabriel Bompard and Their Victim, in Which His Accomplies is Putting the Rope Around Gouffe's Neck.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—M. Eyraud, who was arrested in Havana for the murder of M. Gouffe, is spending his time in prison prior to his trial in drawing up his memoirs. One of the wardens, who is an artist in his way, is illustrating the text. Eyraud has made a rough sketch indicating the relative positions of the victim, of himself and of Gabriel Bompard, his accomplice and mistress. The latter is playfully putting the noose around Gouffe's neck, while Eyraud is in the rear.

GOUFFE. BOMPARD. EYRAUD.

Gabrielle is living high in prison, her meals, which are sent in from a restaurant in the Place St. Michael, by order of M. Garonger, who brought her back from America, costing twenty francs a day. This includes a bottle of champagne for her dinner, the prison rules allowing any kind of wine, and Mademoiselle Bompard finds that champagne takes away low spirits. Eyraud's food consists mostly of boiled beef and vegetables, with half a pint of red wine with each meal. The trial of the couple has been fixed for the first week in November.

The crime for which these people are in jail awaiting trial is the murder of M. Gouffe, in Paris, last July a year ago. Gouffe was a process server and bill collector who disappeared utterly one day, just after he had collected some $3,500, and no trace of him could be found, though his brother-in-law was suspected of having made away with him. Some weeks later his corpse was found near Lyons, in the south of France, and in the vicinity were the remains of a large trunk.

Bit by bit the ingenious French police traced the trunk to its purchasers and proved that one Eyraud and Gabrielle Bompard, traveling as his niece, had been its owners, and that they had fled from France, no one knew where. Months afterward they gave up the search as hopeless, but some time ago Gabrielle amazed the Paris prefect of police by stepping in and announcing that she had come all the way from San Francisco to reveal the mystery.

She told how Eyraud strangled Gouffe in her apartments, robbed him and disposed of the body; how she went with him to America through fear, and had returned as soon as possible. She is a beautiful and graceful woman of 22, the daughter of a well-to-do merchant and quite well educated.

About two months ago Eyraud was arrested in Havana and brought here on extradition papers and lodged in jail.

The Famine in Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The St. James Gazette sneers at the Irish famine fund, which it characterizes as a mere electoral dodge.

The Pall Mall Gazette rebukes The Times for its strictures on the subject and asks whether the scampers through Ireland of the financial secretary to the treasury, Mr. Jackson, or the placid absence from that country of Mr. Balfour, or even the eager scepticism of The Times, prove the non-existence of famine Ireland.

The Star says that the prompt action in the direction of organizing relief for the famine threatened people taken in America shames the English people, and declares that the creation of a British fund for the same purpose is imperative.

The News says that the every true Englishman honors the liberal hearted men of America and must be ashamed that his own government is offering Ireland only coercion, while America gives bread.

Comments on the McKinley Bill.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Chronicle doubts the wisdom of Canadian statesmen stirring up a bitter feud with their powerful neighbor on account of the McKinley tariff, especially when it is the opinion in many quarters that the law is the prelude to a more enlightened policy.

The Times is disposed to agree very largely with the Canadian ministers. The McKinley tariff must be recognized as a demonstration of hostility against England hardly less decided than the Berlin and Milan decrees of Napoleon I. The News Berlin dispatch says it is stated that Germany contemplates reprisals if America refuses to modify the McKinley tariff.

Madame Bonnet Confesses.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—Madame Bonnet, the woman who was arrested at Cannes on suspicion of being a German spy, and in whose possession were found plans of the defenses of that place, has confessed that she was in the employ of the German government at a monthly salary of 300 francs, besides which she received fifteen francs daily for her traveling expenses.

Stormy Scene at Limerick.

LIMERICK, Oct. 3.—A stormy scene occurred in the Limerick corporation meeting yesterday, when a motion of censure for the Tipperary arrests was under discussion. The motion was finally passed, and its opponents narrowly escaped being ejected from the meeting.

A Suspect Assassinated.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—An Armenian advocate has been assassinated here by order of the Armenian revolutionists, who suspected him of betraying their cause to the sultan. Many arrests have been made as a result of the exposure of the conspiracy.

The Emperor Gratified.

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Emperor William has telegraphed the empress and Chancellor Caprivi that he is highly gratified with his reception in Vienna. Chancellor Von Caprivi has started on a visit to south German courts.

AN EXCITED DIOCESE.

Trouble Between Bishop Gilmore and Editor J. J. Greeves.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 3.—Trouble that has been recently brewing between Bishop Gilmore and J. J. Greeves, editor of The Catholic Knight, which Greeves claims is the official organ of the Knights of St. John, and which the bishop denies, culminated yesterday afternoon in the bishop's publishing decrees of the Third council of Baltimore.

These decrees permit canonical punishment of publishers who make hostile attacks on church authority. In his publication Bishop Gilmore reserves to himself the right of abolition of not only Greeves, but all those who handle, encourage or read The Catholic Knight. Manly Tello, editor of The Catholic Universe, the bishop's paper, has instituted suit for libel against The World, which published an article by a Youngstown priest attacking Tello and the bishop personally. The diocese is greatly excited over the affair.

FATALLY CUT BY HIS OWN EONE.

An Indiana Carpenter Meets His Death in a Very Peculiar Manner.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 3.—John Chenoweth, a carpenter, of this county, met his death in a very peculiar manner. The scaffolding upon which he was standing tumbled down, throwing Chenoweth to the earth. A small square he had in his hand at the time of the fall penetrated his left breast just above the heart.

His right arm was broken and the bones badly shattered. The severed bones were forced through the flesh, and one end of the bone striking him near the shoulder, cut an artery in the upper part of his arm, from which hemorrhage he bled to death in a short time. There was another man on the scaffold with Chenoweth at the time of the accident, but he fortunately escaped any serious injury beyond a lively shaking up. The dead man leaves a widow and five children.

HAYES ON THE MCKINLEY BILL.

The Ex-President Regrets the Passage of the Measure.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Ex-President Hayes, in an interview on the McKinley tariff bill, said: "I cannot find words to express my regret at the passage of the measure. It is ruinous to our best interests, and it will do an indefinite amount of harm."

"What do you think of the letters written against it by Mr. Blaine?"

"I second every word Mr. Blaine wrote in the matter. I cannot understand how public men can be so blind to the interests of the country at large, to pass such a bill. It is the most terrible blow that has been struck at the Republican party since its existence."

Wrecked for Lack of Wind.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The brig Lurline, from Hilo, with a cargo of sugar for J. D. Spreckels & Company, was becalmed Wednesday while entering the harbor and drifted on the rocks at Point Diablo. She was hauled off, but was leaking so badly she had to be beached. The cargo was valued at $70,000 and is badly damaged. The damage to the vessel is $26,000; loss partly covered by insurance. The brig John D. Spreckels was also becalmed and came near drifting into the rocks, but was towed out by a passing tug.

Election in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Oct. 3.—The election in Georgia Wednesday was for a full state ticket. The regular Democratic ticket voted for was as follows: Governor, William J. Northen; secretary of state, Phil. Cook; treasurer, R. U. Hardeman; comptroller general, W. A. Wright; attorney general, George N. Lester; commissioner of agriculture, R. T. Nesbitt. No opposition ticket was put in the field.

Three Women Instantly Killed.

MASKINGONGE, Que., Oct. 2.—While Mrs. Dostaler, wife of Dr. Dostaler, of this place, was driving across the Canadian Pacific tracks Wednesday evening, in a carriage containing herself, Mrs. Piche, Miss Heroux and two children aged about 5 years, the carriage was struck by a freight train and all three ladies were instantly killed. The two children escaped without injury.

Fought a Duel.

LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 3.—Al. Hoover and Alex. Lane, of Jolietville, twelve miles east of this city, engaged in a deadly combat Wednesday afternoon, as a result of a former quarrel. Five or six shots were passed, during which Hoover fell mortally wounded. Lane was fled the country. Hoover is hourly expected to die. Both were prominent business men.

The Grandfather Officiated.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Miss Josie Palmer, only daughter of W. R. Palmer, business manager of the Madison Square theatre, and H. W. Marcellus, formerly of Cleveland, were married yesterday at 161 West One Hundred and Second street. Rev. A. C. Palmer, D. D., of Stonington, Conn., the venerable grandfather of the bride, officiated.

CAR ROBBED BY MASKED MEN

On the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad.

EXPRESS MESSENGER HELD UP.

The Safe Riddled of Over a Thousand Dollars, the Messenger Robbed of His Salary and Watch and Then Left Him Bound and Gagged.

TIFFIN, O., Oct. 3.—A bold express robbery was committed on a Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland train, south of here, yesterday morning. An Adams express messenger was held up by masked men armed with revolvers. The safe was ransacked. The loss is supposed to be several thousand dollars. The robbers escaped.

The robbery occurred on the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland, between Carey and Urbana. Immediately after the train left Urbana two masked men, with cocked revolvers, entered the express car and compelled the Adams express messenger, A. L. Scudder, to throw up his hands. They then tied him securely and robbed the safe of packages containing several thousand dollars and other valuables.

While they were at work a brakeman attempted to enter the car and was shot at by one of the robbers. He gave the alarm and the train was slowed up to give an opportunity to capture the robbers; but they jumped from the train just as it was entering West Liberty and disappeared in the darkness, it then being just about 3:20 o'clock. Messenger Scudder lives in Covington, Kentucky.

Messenger Scudder was bound in his chair with a wash line the robbers brought with them. One of them, whom the other called "Jack," tried to kill Scudder before leaving the car; placing the revolver at his head he pulled the trigger, but the cartridge failed to explode. The other robber then prevented him from trying again.

When the train pulled out of West Liberty the two scoundrels again got aboard, holding the entire crew at bay. Scudder, who had been released, opened fire on them with a pistol from his car door, but was compelled to retreat. The robbers kept on board until Bellefontaine was reached, when they again jumped off and disappeared. The officers at Bellefontaine are searching for them.

Scudder is about 50 years old, lives in Cincinnati and has been on this run since the Adams company took charge of the express business on it, about three years ago. He was previously in the same company's employ on the Ohio river lines. He had just received his month's salary and that was among the booty.

The trainmen were so badly frightened that Conductor Bosworth notified no one until seventy-five miles from the scene of the robbery. The men were each about five feet ten inches in height, and weighing about 180 pounds. Each wore a plain black overcoat, and one had a cap and the other a hat.

Reward for the Robbers.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3.—It is learned here that the packages for the pay of the employees of the road for the past month were not in the express car as the robbers supposed, and that less than $1,000 were secured. Men have been arrested at several places along the road, but it is believed the two robbers made good their escape.

Governor Campbell has been asked to offer a reward, but he can't do it without calling a special session of the legislature.

A special from Bellefontaine says the men jumped off at a crossing near that place and that two suspects have been arrested by the authorities there.

Superintendent Bimble, of the Adams Express company in a circular which he issued yesterday afternoon describes the men as follows: Five feet eleven inches in height, weighing in the neighborhood of 180 pounds each, wearing plain black overcoats, one with a cap, the other with a hat.

ARIZONA.

Condition of the Territory Sent to Washington by Her Governor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—N. O. Murphy, acting governor of Arizona, has made an extended report of the condition of the territory to the secretary of the interior. The population of the territory (unofficially given) is 60,000, or excluding Indians and residents of military reservations, 57,600; gain in ten years 19,560.

The Mormons number one-fifth of the population, and others are coming in from Idaho. He recommends that congress make the Idaho test oath applicable in Arizona to prevent the territory being "Mormonized." The report advises that the San Carlos Apaches be removed from the territory; that the salaries of the present judges in Arizona be increased to $5,000 per year, and that the pay of the legislators be increased to $10 per day.

The total debt of the territory is $757,158; with county and city indebtedness added, is $3,481,688.

The report says that the mining industry is in a healthy condition and that, owing to the astonishing productivity of the soil, great attention is being paid to agriculture.

Escaped Prisoner Arrested.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Oct. 3.—William Nicely, whose parents live at Westport, this county, escaped from jail at Marysville, Kan., Aug. 8, and appeared at his old home at Westport a few days ago. Marshal Biddinger, of that village, arrested Nicely, upon receiving word that $25 reward was offered for him, and brought him here to jail, where he will be kept, awaiting for a requisition from the governor of Kansas for his return there. Nicely says he was in for stealing $30, and that the women at the jail at Marysville let him out.

COTTON CELEBRATION.

Anniversary of the Introduction of Cotton Spinning by Power in America.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 2.—Again the usually busy machinery of the Blackstone Valley was set yesterday to allow the operatives to attend the day's celebration of the introduction of cotton spinning by power into America. The day was even warmer than any of the others thus far enjoyed.

Early trains carried to Pawtucket red-shirted firemen from various towns of New England, for the day was set apart to hand engine contests for both active and retired fire-fighters. Again Pawtucketers, who have slept but little during the half week of excitement, arose betimes; again flags were hoisted to the peaks of the houses, and the city of bobbins was a flutter of color.

Where the trains carried one person Wednesday, they conveyed three yesterday, and the streets of the city were packed from curb to curb.

The line formed for the parade near Park Place at 8:30 a. m.

There were twenty veteran and active firemen's associations and companies, as well as the whole city fire department in line.

When the parade was dismissed, dinner was served to the firemen in the big tent. After dinner the line reformed and marched to Camp Burnside, where a trial of the old fashioned hand engines took place.

Centenary hall, the scene of the machinery and trades exhibits, was thronged during the day.

At noon yesterday, while the crowds were passing over the Pawtucket bridge, Patrick Devlin, by way of emulating the historic jump of Sam Patch some sixty years ago, dived from the parapet of the bridge into the seething waters below and reappeared on the surface, and swam safely to the shore amid the cheers of the assembled thousands.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Secretary Butterworth Talks About the Fair and the McKinley Bill.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—In view of the vast number and variety of questions propounded to Mr. Butterworth, secretary of the world's Columbian exposition, concerning the work done and in progress, and the opportunities afforded and facilities to be provided he is about to provide a circular letter which will impart much of this information solicited.

Referring to the statement by The Independence Belge published in Brussels in regard to the effect of the McKinley bill on our exposition, Mr. Butterworth said:

"That it will have some effect in the direction suggested is quite probable, but that it will be in an approximate degree as far reaching as is suggested in that journal, I cannot believe. Undoubtedly it would be useless to make an exhibit for the purpose of securing purchasers of goods, if it will be impossible to sell and deliver the goods after the purchasers are found. But there is a misapprehension as to the possible scope and range of the McKinley bill—as to the rate of duties imposed as compared with the present rate, and also as to the number of articles to which it applies."

"I have sent for a copy of the bill as it passed and was approved by the president, and will make up a statement showing its relation to the existing rates, and the range of articles affected by the changes and also those on which there is practically no duty, and which would afford a conspicuous and most attractive and interesting part of our exhibition. It must be obvious to all that there may be a very wide and important range of exhibits that would not be touched by the tariff, but I shall, as soon as I get hold of the law, make a full statement in regard to the matter."

THE OYSTER CROP.

A Brilliant Outlook for the Next Two or Three Years.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The fish commission has been informed that the United States steamer Fish Hawk, which has been working on the oyster beds of Long Island sound, will complete her work the latter part of this month. The investigation shows that the set of spat this year is the largest ever recorded from that region, making a very brilliant outlook for the next two or three years. The oyster men are reported making large profits on the dredging and sale of the young oysters for planting purposes.

As soon as the Fish Hawk finishes her work, it is intended to send her to the coast of South Carolina to study the waters there with reference to natural oyster beds and bottoms fitted for planting purposes. Similar investigations have been made within the past few years on the coast of North Carolina and Florida.

The proposed survey of the coast of South Carolina will be very thorough, and the prospects are that she will develop into a good oyster state.

Becoming Quite an Elopiste.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Search is being made in this city for the wife of an old retired merchant named Schulze, who has a magnificent mansion in the Pestalozzi-strasse in Charlottenburg, and who eloped a few weeks ago with a waiter named Fritz Lenz. It has been found that the couple reached this city in one of the German line of steamers. Mrs. Schulze before her departure secured over 80,000 marks belonging to her husband, together with a quantity of diamonds and other valuables. Her paramour left a wife and four small children in abject poverty. This is the second time that the woman has eloped in three months.

Two Boys Killed by a Train.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Willie Williams, aged 10, and Clarence Mackelfresh, 9, were killed by the Glendale accommodation on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad at "Dead Man's Crossing," near Winton Place. A brother of Mackelfresh was killed in the same manner at the same place a year ago.

Solder.

In addition to the two car-loads of tin Messrs. McClanahan & Shea received this week, they were wise enough to lay in a stock of 1,000 pounds of solder. We say they were wise, because the price of this article has gone up 2½ cents a pound since the McKinley Tariff bill became a law.

To make the matter plainer, the price of solder was 13 cents a pound before the Republicans' new tariff bill was passed. The price now is 15½ cents a pound.

The shipment of solder—1,000 pounds—cost the firm $130. If they had waited until this week to make the purchase, it would have cost them $155.

The firm gets the benefit of the advance, and "the foreign manufacturer pays it."

Does he?

Well, that's what the Republicans say, but any one with a grain of common sense knows that the people of Maysville who have any tin work done pay this increase brought about by the McKinley bill.

The tariff does seem to be a tax after all, doesn't it?

The firm above wisely laid in a year's supply of tin and tinner's material before the McKinley bill was passed. The signing of that measure by the President put about $700 in the firm's pocket. That is, the advance in the cost of the tin and solder amounts to that sum, and of course they will pocket it, and it will come off the people who have any tin work done.

Yea, verily, the tariff is a tax, and a heavy one at that.

Where's the remedy? Elect a Democratic Congress, and thus secure a wise and equitable revision of the war tariff—a revision in the interest of the masses and not of the classes.

A CONGRESSIONAL convention at Memphis balloted only 5,059 times in making a nomination.

It is significant that Plumb, Paddock and Pettigrew, the only Republican Senators who voted against the Tariff bill, all hail from the West.

The people are fast becoming convinced that "the tariff is a tax." It taxes a fellow who roofs his home now with tin one dollar on every square.

At the November elections the city of New York will choose thirty-six officers whose aggregate salaries amount to $278,000. Among them will be a Mayor who appoints to office those whose salaries and fees will aggregate a quarter of a million more.

The Republicans of this district have been called to meet in Maysville Saturday, Oct. 18th, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one delegate in said convention for each 100 and fraction over 50 votes cast for President Harrison in 1888.

"The most telling condemnation of the McKinley tariff of 1890," says the New York Star, "comes from the findings of the Tariff Commission of 1883, in which it was declared that a substantial reduction of tariff duties is demanded, not by mere indiscriminate popular clamor, but by the best conservative opinion of the country, including that which has been the most strenuous for the preservation of our National industrial defenses." And yet the McKinley bill instead of making a "substantial reduction" increases the duty in most instances.

The Railways.

The eastbound shipments from Chicago last week were 72,580 tons, against 58,912 the same week last year.

The Ohio River Railroad has purchased the C. & O. shops at Huntington. The C. & O. will probably erect shops somewhere between Huntington and Cincinnati.

The strong engine owned by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton is now being used to haul freight between Cincinnati and Dayton. The engine readily hauls seventy-five loaded cars.

In the eleven weeks from the 1st of June the total earnings of the seventeen prominent British railways have expanded £752,000 or at the average rate of £68,300 per week. The earnings of the first eleven weeks of the second half of 1890 compared with the corresponding period of 1888 have increased about £1,774,000, or a weekly average increase of £161,000.

County Court Doings.

Thomas Wells qualified as trustee of James Davis, with T. C. Campbell and W. W. Ball sureties. Appraisers: Wm. Ross, James R. Branch and W. W. Ball.

Captain George Collier was granted license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors at the Central Hotel.

A FORMER MAYSVILLIAN

Figures in a Rather Complicated Law Suit at Cincinnati.

Will McCreary, formerly of this city, figures in a rather complicated law suit at Cincinnati. The Enquirer says:

"Some months ago J. S. Vanarsdall, of Danville, Ky., gave to McCreary a check for $120 on a Danville bank, in payment of a debt. After a time Jack E. Collins, until recently the manager of a bucket shop, requested McCreary to give him the check, stating that he would send it through the Adams Express for collection. The express agent at Danville wrote in reply, saying that the check was not honored at the bank, owing to a lack of funds in the name of the giver. Collins informed McCreary of the result of his efforts, and gave him an order on the Adams Express Company for the check. The order was written out by a telegraph operator named Hill, attached to Collins' office, and signed by Collins himself.

"McCreary presented the order, but was informed that the check had not yet been returned from Danville. He then left the city on a business trip, but returned in a few days and again called at the office of the express company, but was told that an order similar to his own had been presented for it during his absence, and that the check was gone. McCreary had now lost the check, and had little hope of obtaining the $120 due him. Soon after, Collins, the bucket-shop man, left the city under a cloud, taking, it is said, $1,500 with him.

"On September 15 McCreary received a letter from W. Austin Goodman stating that Broker Collins had borrowed $100 from him for McCreary, leaving the latter's check, given by Vanarsdall, as security. This check Mr. Goodman found worthless, and he informed McCreary that he intended to bring suit against him for the money. Collins' effects, including the check, had all been turned over to Goodman before the broker fled from the city. The letter was a great surprise to McCreary, who was then asked to pay $100 for a worthless check that he had received as the only equivalent for money loaned. The trial promises to be an interesting one, and the orders which figured largely in the complication will be presented as evidence.

"Hill, the attache of the bucket shop, who wrote the order, has vanished from the city. That there has been crooked work with the check is very evident, but it is difficult to place the blame. McCreary thinks Hill forged the second order with or without the knowledge of Collins. The defendant in this suit is also curious as to Goodman's readiness to lend money to Collins to be used by another man."

That Harrow Swindle.

The sharpers behind that "patent harrow" swindle roped in a fine lot of suckers in Shelby County, Ohio. A special says it is known that seven farmers in the county named have been "agents" of the Whipple Harrow Company, of St. Johns, Mich. To be an agent requires one to give his note for five harrows at $52 each, or as much as he will stand. The implements are usually sold for $25 by regular dealers.

Yet one farmer of Shelby County paid $65 for each of his machines. When he found he was stuck he begged the agents to recall his order. They told him to go to the telegraph office and order the house to not send his goods. He did so, but his machines came, and, although it riled him much, he hauled them ten miles to his home.

It is supposed the farmers of the county have been victimized out of $5,000 by recklessly signing their names to papers offered them by strangers. Moral! Don't sign a paper every time a stranger asks you to. It would be a safer plan not to sign any paper presented you by a stranger.

Slashed With a Dirk.

Mr. Richard Harris, of this city, received a terrible cut on the head and face at the Germantown fair yesterday. Lewis Thompson, whose home is near Bridgeville, raised a disturbance at the stables, and Harris, who was acting as policeman, attempted to arrest him. Two of Thompson's friends went to his rescue and seized Harris. Thompson then approached, knocked Harris' cane out of his hand, and drawing a large dirk-knife, slashed him across the head and face.

The wound extends from the top of Harris' head down across the middle of his forehead, the bridge of his nose and under his left eye. The weapon barely escaped striking the eye and cutting it out. His right arm was also cut, but not very badly. If bystanders had not interfered, Harris would no doubt have been cut to pieces. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Owens, after which he was brought to his home in this city. He was resting well this morning.

Thompson was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Perrine and lodged in jail here later in the evening. He will be given a trial as soon as Harris is able to appear against him.

The names of the men who held Harris were not learned.

The day dawned clear but about ten o'clock cloudy and rain set in, which lasted about thirty or forty minutes. This doubtless kept many away. The crowd on a rough guess would be about 3,000.

The balloon ascension by Prof. Davidson was witnessed by the crowd, who, one and all, held their breath while the Professor "skinned the cat," held by one hand, etc., etc., in mid air. He was fully a mile high when he let loose from the balloon. It will be repeated to-day. The tight rope walking was simply immense. Even the old stagers held their breath while it was being done.

FLEXIBLE, DAINTY, HEALTHFUL.

Cork Sole Turned Shoes

Are as flexible and dainty as the finest turn, and are the easiest walking Shoe made, the cork acting as a cushion to the foot. The cork being secured in a pocket, thus forming a part of the Shoe, it is impossible for it to work loose or break up. They are also the most healthful Shoe, as CORK IS A NON-CONDUCTOR OF HEAT AND MOISTURE. It prevents the warmth of the bottom of the foot from radiating and escaping in cold weather, and in warm weather it prevents the heat from the pavements from penetrating the foot.

LADIES wearing our Cork Soled Turned Shoes needn't fear cold, hot, damp or rough walks. They are as flexible and dainty a Shoe as the lightest turned Shoe made. Come and see them; they are a thing of beauty and comfort. Come and see, also, the largest retail stock of Boots and Shoes in the State. Selling at 25 per cent. less than anybody else sells them.

Nothing had been done towards improving Market street space and the question was about to be passed, when Mayor Pearce informed Council that if something was not done in the matter forthwith he would issue warrants. He said the space in its present condition was a disgrace to the city. The Council admitted this, and on motion of Mr. Fitzgerald the Marshal was directed to notify all parties who had deposited barrels and other rubbish to remove same in twenty-four hours, under penalty of fine.

The following permits were granted:

Wm. Spremberg; to erect a two-story frame house on corner of Third and Commerce streets.

Omar Dodson; a one and one-half story frame residence in rear of large brick residence on Second, near corner of Limestone street.

B. P. McClanahan; to repair stable in rear of lot on Second street.

R. H. Newell; to add another story to his business house on Third, the addition to be frame, covered with iron.

The Committee on Laws was directed to prepare and report an ordinance to prevent the burning of paper and other trash on streets and alleys.

James H. Taylor and Wm. Scott were granted license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors on Wall street.

The petition of Carr & Tolle to erect a cooper shop on Bridge street was refused, the committee having reported adversely to granting same.

Messrs. Carr & Tolle were granted permission to extend their warehouse on Fourth street 40 by 60 feet.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons was placed on the "pension list" at the rate of $2 a month.

Fannie Hubbard, an old colored woman disabled by disease, was placed on the "pension roll" at the rate of $2.00 a week.

The following was adopted and ordered spread on the records:

Resolved: By the Board of Councilmen of the City of Maysville, That a cordial invitation is hereby extended to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Kentucky, to hold its session of 1891 in this city; and on behalf of the citizens of Maysville we promise representatives and visitors a hearty welcome.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, a certified copy of the above was ordered placed in the hands of Mr. Thomas A. Davis to be presented to the Grand Lodge at the approaching meeting.

Mrs. Crawford was restored to the "pension list" at the rate of $2 a week.

The subject of appointing registration officers in accordance with the law passed by the last Legislature was called up by President Cox, who stated that the law required the officers to be appointed between Oct. 1st and Oct. 15th. The members didn't seem to be acquainted with the provisions of the law and it was suggested that the matter be postponed until next Tuesday, when a full attendance of the members could be had. This idea prevailed and a motion to that effect was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Fitzgerald, the Clerk was authorized to have the Registration law printed in pamphlet form.

The council then adjourned until 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 7th.

ESQUIRE MASSIE BEASLEY informs the BULLETIN that he married thirty-four couples between September 1st and October 2nd. Most of the parties were from Kentucky, but some came from West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

MR. AND MRS. LANGHORNE M. TABB met with a sad bereavement this week in the loss of their daughter, Mary P. Tabb, who died Oct. 1st at the family residence in Cincinnati, at the age of six years, two months and four days. The remains were brought here yesterday and interred in the cemetery.

THE Court of Appeals has reversed the decision in the case of the city of Covington against Smrall. This suit was to test the constitutionality of the Insurance License law. An ordinance at Covington fixes the license at $50 on each company, and Judge Arthur decided that it was valid, but the upper court rules otherwise.

JOHN W. B. LEE, clothing and shoe merchant, of Carlisle has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. The principal parties caught are Cincinnati merchants, and his brother-in-law, H. F. Wilson, of Branch Hill, Ohio. The amount of his liabilities is unknown, but it is thought he will pay 75 cents on the dollar, as he has a large stock of goods on hand, and his liabilities are not thought to be over $5,000.

A LETTER from Carter County to the Greenup Gazette says: "Since editor and lecturer George W. Comer defaulted for parts unknown, leaving his paper, the Kentucky Home Journal, standing severely alone, his printers unpaid, and those who trusted him by taking stock in the enterprise holding the poke, the Farmers' Alliance is not on such a rampage, and the enthusiasm heretofore so bounteously manifested by the horny-handed sons of toil has to a great extent flickered. Comer was a high-flyer among the brethren for some time."

C. and O. Sunday Excursions
Trains Nos. 17, 42, 45 and 44, which are the popular Sunday excursion trains of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, running between Cincinnati and Ironton (Russell), will, after Sunday, October 5th, be discontinued.

THE OLD AND NEW TARIFF LAW

A Certified Copy of the New Law Cannot Reach All the Collectors Before it Goes Into Effect—A Brief Summary of the Work of the Congress Just Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The treasury department yesterday morning mailed a certified copy of the new tariff law to every collector of customs and internal revenue in the United States. The new law goes into effect on Oct. 6. In this connection an interesting point has been raised at the treasury department which will probably be brought before the secretary for decision.

The point in question arises from the delinquency of the mail service to deliver the tariff law to the collector at San Francisco and other points where it is an impossibility for mail sent out yesterday to be delivered on the 6th instant. As the old law goes out of operation on that date, the question has arisen whether goods arriving at San Francisco and other points before the new law has been received by the collector, are dutiable under the old, or properly come under a law which the collector of customs has never read and officially knows nothing of.

A prominent treasury official, speaking of the matter yesterday, expressed the opinion that the goods might be assessed under the old law and relinquished under the new law when it is received. He said, however, that it was not obligatory upon the collector to have a certified copy of the law before him, and that in the event of uncertainty as to the assessment of certain goods, he could telegraph the treasury department for their proper classification.

Quick Work on the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The government printing office made the quickest time on record in getting out the official print of the tariff law. Most of it was in type Wednesday, but the proofs had to be compared with the original bill at the state department Wednesday night. As there were sixty-five pages in proof this was by no means a simple work. But under the supervision of Mr. Bryan, of the printing office, it was completed not long after midnight, and before morning the presses had turned out enough copies of the bill to supply the collectors of customs throughout the country. They were mailed Thursday by the treasury department and it is expected that all of them will have reached their destinations by the time the law goes into effect next Monday.

Committee Work.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The shortness of the recess of congress will prevent the several investigating committees pursuing their inquiries to any extent before the next session convenes. The sub-committee of the house appointed to look into the arrangements made by the world's fair commission for the government exhibit, will go to Chicago at an early date.

The sub-committee of the house judiciary committee, that has been investigating allegations of corruption in United States courts, will go to New Orleans after the November election to continue its investigation, and the joint committee of the senate and house, charged with the inquiry into the immigration system, will go to the Pacific coast early in November.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The records show that 12,208 bills and 235 joint resolutions were introduced in the house during the session just ended, against 11,609 bills and 248 joint resolutions introduced during the first session of the Fifty-third congress. During both sessions of the Fifty-third congress, 12,664 bills and 269 joint resolutions were introduced in the house.

In the senate 4,451 bills and 129 joint resolutions were introduced in the first session of the Fifty-third congress, against 4,643 bills and 118 joint resolutions for the corresponding session of the Fifty-third congress. The bills introduced in the senate during the Fifty-third congress numbered 4,000 and the joint resolutions numbered 143.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The treasury department monthly statement of changes in the circulation, issued yesterday, shows a net increase during September past of $6,009,767. Bond redemptions and prepayment of interest is the chief cause of this unusually large increase. The total circulation of the country on Oct. 1 is placed at $1,498,072,709, against $1,405,018,000 on Oct. 1, 1899, an increase during the past twelve months of $93,054,703. During the twelve months immediately preceding this period the circulation increased $20,677,720.

Washington Being Deserted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Nearly all the senators and members have left the city for their homes. A few of those remaining were at the capital Thursday. Speaker Reed was at the house for a short time, and went thence to the station, where he took a train for New York. He will then go to Portland.

Flaw in the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—It is understood that another flaw has been discovered in the tariff bill as signed—the omission of the paragraph providing for a drawback on manufactured tobacco. As this clause does not go into effect until Jan. 1, congress will have an opportunity to remedy the defect.

Two Big Mortgages.

NEOADA, Mo., Oct. 3.—Two mortgages for $40,000,000 each, given by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway, one of them to the Mercantile Trust company, and one to the Central Trust company, or New York, have just been placed on record here. They are to secure the issue of $80,000,000 in bonds and run 100 years at 4 per cent.

IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE.

Blast Furnaces Was the Subject Discussed—Gold Metal Presentation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The second session of the British Iron and Steel Institute which met yesterday was not so well attended as was that of the previous day. The discussion of the paper read by Mr. Gayley on "Blast Furnaces," was the first thing on the program.

Herr Thielen, of the German delegation, compared the manner of charging and running blast furnaces in Germany with that practiced in the United States.

Mr. Windsor Richards argued against the practice of running blast furnaces at the extreme high rate of speed now in progress.

Mr. E. E. Potter, of Chicago, gave an extended account of the work of the blast furnaces of the Illinois Steel company, and of several blast furnaces and works near Chicago, and compared the performances of the fifteen furnaces of the Illinois Steel company with those of the Edgar-Thompson works of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Snelus, of England, made a comparison of the shapes of English and American furnaces; the quantity of coke used in each; the temperature of the blast; the pressure and volume of the same, and the production or output of the same under their respective conditions.

Mr. Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, spoke in much the same line of his predecessors.

Mr. William Whitwell, of England, gave a few statistics on English blast furnaces and told how they were run in different parts of that country.

Several other gentlemen from both the British and American institutes discussed Mr. Gayley's paper.

Sir James Kitson then presented Hon. Abram S. Hewitt with the Bessemer gold medal for his distinguished services to the iron and steel trade and also with the framed diploma certifying to his enrollment among those who had received the Bessemer gold medal.

Mr. Hewitt received the tokens of esteem amid great applause. He then, after a few words of appreciation of the honor conferred, read his speech which was to have been delivered Wednesday.

ASSAULTED BY A NEGRO.

A Ten-Year-Old Girl Outraged by a Negro Brute.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 3.—Gracie Clark, the 10-year-old daughter of Thomas Clark, a farmer, was assaulted on Sunday evening while she was playing in her father's barn, near New Castle, by Jacob Starks, a negro, weighing 180 pounds. Starks was captured yesterday and had to be taken secretly to the jail, owing to threats made against him.

At a hearing in the afternoon the prisoner was committed to jail without bail to answer the charge at court. The negro had compelled the child to keep silent about the affair under a threat of drowning her, but her sufferings through injury became unbearable and she told everything.

Double Tragedy.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 3.—This morning William Carroll, aged 19, twitted Louis Griggs, aged 31, about being a cripple. The latter drew a Barlow knife and stabbed Carroll twice, leaving the knife sticking in Carroll's body. In a moment Carroll arose, ran across the street after Griggs and drawing the knife from the wound, plunged it into Griggs' abdomen and immediately afterward fell dead. Griggs also died in a few minutes.

A Seven Million Dollar Firm.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—It is stated on good authority that eastern capitalists have organized a company with $7,000,000 capital for the purpose of conducting the business of manufacturing tinned plates. The headquarters of the company will be at Baltimore; it will run its own tin mines and will try to control the American tinned plate trade. Buildings will be erected at once. Another company, composed principally of Englishmen, will in a few weeks begin the erection of a tinned plate plant at Duquesne, ten miles east of Pittsburgh.

One Suicide Follows Another.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 3.—Frank Brightman, a collector employed by George S. Eddy, committed suicide last night by jumping from Crab Pond bridge. While men were dragging for his body, a man who has not been identified, took off his coat on the Ferry street wharf, jumped into the water and was drowned.

A Young Girl Disappears.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 3.—Mary Purcell, aged 16, has disappeared from her home in this place. She was in love with one John Veeley, whom her parents had forbidden the house, and it is supposed that he has knowledge of her whereabouts, though he denies it.

Blue and Gray Reunite.

CLINTON, Mo., Oct. 3.—The G. A. R. and ex-Confederates held a joint reunion at this place Wednesday. Addresses were delivered by Col. Leo Rascheur and Judge C. G. Burton. Fully 3,000 people were in attendance.

Death of a Noted Man.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—Philip Francis Thomas died yesterday. He was one of the best known and highly respected characters in the state. In 1839 he was elected to the Twenty-sixth congress. Later on he was governor of Maryland; secretary of treasury for a short period under President Buchanan, and at different times member of the house of delegates. He was elected United States senator in 1863, but was refused admission because of alleged disloyalty to the Union during the war.

A Young Lady Burned to Death.

WINCHESTER, Mass., Oct. 3.—This morning, while Miss Amelia Richardson was preparing breakfast, her clothing accidentally caught fire and she was burned to death before assistance could be rendered her.

Awaiting Requisition Papers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Edward J. Hubbell, who defaulted with several thousands belonging to an Omaha bank, was arrested in Hoboken Wednesday. He was held to await the arrival of requisition papers.

PUBLIC SALE

—OF A—

Desirable Farm of 231 Acres.

I will sell at public sale on the premises, about three miles west of Flemingsburg, on the dirt road leading from the Elizaville pike to the Johnson Junction pike, on THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1890, my farm of 231 acres, more or less, to be determined by survey if desired. This land is unexcelled by any in Fleming County for tobacco, wheat and other staple crops, and lays well, no waste or hilly land on it. Fifty acres of winter wheat has been sown. The land is well watered by springs, which afford plenty of water for all purposes in the dry season. The farm is susceptible of division into two small farms of 117 and 114 acres each, and will be offered both as a whole and in the two tracts, each of which will have comfortable houses. There is a good orchard of select fruit on the place. The farm is in one of the best neighborhoods in the county, within half a mile of a good school house. Sale will begin at 1 o'clock a. m. promptly.

TERMS.—One-half cash, and the remainder in two equal payments, due in one and two years, without interest, and a lien retained on the land to secure payment.
